Parish. Rev. Bist and Father Paul will lead our celebration together, where communion will be served reflecting the differences, but also the similarities in our two faith traditions. In unity with others is a wonderful way to begin the Lenten season, given all the disunity in the world currently.

Call to Worship

Opening Prayer of Adoration and Confession

First Reading: Luke 4: 21 - 30

Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth.

They said, "Is not this Joseph's son?" He said to them, "Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, 'Doctor, cure yourself!' And you will say, 'Do here also in your hometown the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.'"

And he said, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown. But the truth is, there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a severe famine over all the land; yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. There were also many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.”

When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage. They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff. But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

Second Reading: Exodus 20: 1 - 6

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.
